

The global economy has raised the stakes in immigration law. Domestic companies face a shortage of employees with critical expertise. Overseas businesses expand by transferring key executives and managers to their U.S. operations. Many of these companies and individuals turn to IVENER & FULLMER to facilitate and handle any obstacles to their work visas and permanent residence in the U.S.

Representing domestic/international companies and individuals in all business immigration matters, IVENER & FULLMER work to open doors for clients ranging from Fortune 500 corporations and investors to movie stars. The scope of work includes representation of investors, foreign executives, managers, professionals and entertainers for temporary and permanent visas.

Mark A. Ivener

For more than 35 years, Mark Ivener has exclusively practiced immigration law. He has lectured on U.S. immigration law for organizations such as the World Trade Institute; the California, Federal and International Bar Associations; and the American Immigration Lawyers Association.

His books include Handbook of Immigration Law, Volumes I & II; Doing Business in the USA Under Free Trade; Get the Right Visa; A Complete Guide to Getting An American Visa (in Japanese); and Have You Thought About Immigrating to the U.S.? (in Spanish). In addition, he has authored many articles for such publications as the International Law Journal, the Canadian-American Bar Association Newsletter and Business and the Law.

A leader in his field, Mark Ivener is a founder of the National Consortium of Immigration Law Firms (IMMLAW) and the Alliance of Business Immigration Lawyers (ABIL). He is listed in the current Martindale-Hubbell Bar Register of Preeminent Lawyers (Immigration and Naturalization), the International Who's Who of Corporate Immigration Lawyers, Chambers Global and Chambers USA. Also, Mark Ivener was the only immigration attorney named in the Leading Lawyers in Private Wealth Management in North America by Citywealth Magazine for 2011.
